DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-99 have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-99 are rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as unpatentable over Burgess(US Pat. No: 5,966,693) in view of National Underwriter(7/12/99) and further in view of CA Magazine(vol 132 #9)(11/99).
4. As per claims 1-99 Burgess teaches a method of combining a loan with life insurance(Abstract)(Figs 1-3). National Underwriter teaches funding the combination of life insurance and annuities(pages 1-3). CA Magazine teaches the advantages of combining an annuity with a life insurance contract(Pages 1-3) as well as analyzing companies for financial and investment offerings. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention to combine Burgess in view of National Underwriter and further in view of CA Magazine to teach the above. The motivation to combine Burgess in view of National Underwriter is to teach a loan system which may be applied to purchasing an annuity and a life policy. Furthermore, the motivation to combine Burgess in view of National Underwriter and further in view of CA Magazine is to teach a loan system which may be applied to the purchase of an annuity and a life insurance contract and which provides a system for generating an after tax return on an insured annuity arrangement that may be significantly greater than conventional interest-bearing investments as enunciated by Giacomini (CA Magazine) (Page 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-99 are further rejected under 35 USC 112(2nd) for failing to define in sufficiently precise terms what the applicant regards as the invention. In particular the subject independent claims are too broad and must be narrowed to adequately define the disclosure over existing art.
